

LAST SUPPER SNACK

Share the following page with the families in your ministry to give them a simple but meaningful way to remember the Last Supper, one of the events of Holy Week leading up to Easter Sunday.

In this simple snack activity, families pour some juice and make their own snack to mimic the bread and wine of the Last Supper meal in Matthew 26:17-30.

This activity is inspired by one of the "Make" Activities in our Holy Week Daily Pack from Kate Milosevic of Jesus Without Language. The Holy Week Daily Pack invites families to journey through Holy Week (Monday-Good Friday) with daily Bible stories, hands-on activities, and games for all ages. LAST SUPPER SNACK

Before Jesus' death on Good Friday, He shared one Last Supper with His disciples on Thursday (known as Maundy Thursday). Use this recipe to have a Last Supper Snack with your kids and talk about Jesus' Last Supper in the Bible!

You need: red juice, frying pan, rolling pin, 2 cups of flour, 2/3 cup water, 1 tablespoon olive oil, pinch of salt

Directions:

- 1) Pour a cup of juice and put it aside.
- 2) Mix the other ingredients.
- 3) Knead well until smooth, then set to rest for 10 minutes.
- 4) Pinch a small ball (walnut size) of the rested dough.
- 5) Roll out the walnut-size ball into a flat circle as thin as possible.
- 6) Place in a preheated dry frying pan for a couple of minutes on each side until it browns slightly.
- 7) Pour the juice into a cup and enjoy a Last Supper snack together as a family, talking about what each element represents and how Jesus shared a meal with His disciples during the Last Supper before His death (see Matthew 26:17-30.)
