

12 MONTHS OF VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION IDEAS

Use this list and the links below to create a strategy for appreciating your volunteers all year long!

January: A can of soda or some fuzzy socks with the generic version of this tag printable!
February: "Thanks for Being the Heart of Our Ministry" + some Dove heart chocolates! (Not free, but here's a printable to help!)
March: Have a surprise basket of baked goods/treats (or extra coffee) on time-change Sunday!
April: For anyone who serves with your special Easter Event or on Easter Sunday, grab some Peeps and thank them for being "one of your peeps!" (Not free, but here's a printable to help!)
May: The Big Thank You, a church-wide volunteer appreciation event with food trucks or popsicles available for free for all volunteers after service(s).
June: For your Summer + Summer Event Volunteers, try this Super Volunteer Appreciation Printable with a small gift card or coupon to a local restaurant!
July: Step into their world and serve them! Help a teacher set up their classroom, attend a fundraiser for their company, etc.
August: Offer Ministry SWAG (mugs, shirts, lanyards, stickers, etc.). Bonus tip: Do it as part of your annual volunteer training!
September: Make a big batch of Pumpkin Spice Chex Mix, attach this printable, and share with your team!
October: Candy + "How Sweet It Is To Serve With You" Printable
November: Write a hand-written note this month to all your volunteers.
December: "Have a Cup of Cheer!" Printable + A coffee gift card, hot chocolate packet, mnistry mug, etc.
