Joseph's Coat of Many Colors

Jacob, whom God renamed Israel, settled in the land of Canaan. God had given this land to Abraham and Isaac and now said that Israel and his descendants would settle there. Joseph was Israel's second youngest son and was born when Israel was older. Fancy material was very expensive in Joseph's time, and Israel gave him a coat that was made of many colors. It was a very special gift.

Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his sons, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a robe of many colors. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peacefully to him. Genesis 37:3-4

Follow these instructions to draw a picture representing Joseph and his coat like the one shown below:

- Decide if you want to draw the right half of the picture or the left half of the picture and draw it in one of the first two grids. You can draw both if you'd like. Don't worry if you can't draw every detail. Just do your best and draw as much of the picture as you can.
- Now, using a blank grid, try drawing the whole picture.
