Parting the Red Sea

The people of Israel were terrified when they saw the Egyptians chasing them! They weren't soldiers. How could they fight and protect their families? And there was nothing but water in front of them—there was nowhere to run! But God reminded the people that He would take care of them and fight for them. And then He made a way right through the water!

And Moses said to the people, "Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will work for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall never see again. The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to be silent." The Lord said to Moses, ". . . Tell the people of Israel to go forward. Lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the people of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground." Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. And the people of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

The Egyptians pursued and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal course when the morning appeared. And as the Egyptians fled into it, the Lord threw the Egyptians into the midst of the sea. Exodus 14:13-16, 21-23, 27

- Decide if you want to draw the right half of the picture or the left half of the picture and draw it in one of the first two grids. You can draw both if you'd like. Don't worry if you can't draw every detail. Just do your best and draw as much of the picture as you can.
- Now, using a blank grid, try drawing the whole picture.
